LeRoy and Ethel Mecham

Mecham 65th

LeRoy and Ethel Warnick Mecham will celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary quietly at home with their family. They were married June 2, 1926, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

LeRoy was born on Provo Bench, raised in Lindon, and received his education in Lindon and Pleasant Grove schools. He has worked as an electrician for the Salt Lake and Utah Railroad, U.S. Fuel in Carbon County, and Utah Power & Light.

Ethel was born in Lehi and raised in Manila. She attended school in Manila, Pleasant Grove, and BYU. She taught school, worked for the state and Alpine School District in the school lunch program.

Both have been active in the LDS Church, Roy as branch president, athletic director in MIA, in the stake Sunday School superintendency, and as High Priest group leader. Ethel has worked as stake and ward Relief Society and MIA presidents, has taught Sunday School, Primary, and Relief Society.

The Mechams spent over a year in Holbrook, Ariz. caring for mission home and missionary trailers. While there they received a call for a mission to the Manti Visitor's Center where they spent a year and a half. They are temple workers in the Provo Temple.

They are the parents of three children, Paul and Richard, American Fork, and Jeanette Johnson, Homestead, Fla. They have 15 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.
